

Human Resource Association of the Twin Tiers (HRATT)

Wage Theft Protection Act

James F. Young, Esquire
Sayles & Evans Law Firm

Jim Young was admitted to the New York State Bar in 1971. Mr. Young received his B.B.A. from St. Bonaventure in 1967 and his JD from Cornell Law school in 1970. Mr. Young is a member of the New York State Bar Association and concentrates in educational law, employment law, and litigation.

Save the date...
March 10 2011

Location:

TAGS Restaurant
2679 Rt-352 Big Flats, NY

Members – $10
Non-Members -$12

Sponsored By

Agenda:

11:45 am - Lunch

12:00 pm - Welcome

12:15 pm - Jim Young

- What is WTPA
- Why does it exist
- Annual notification requirement
- Remedies for wage law violations
- Strengthening whistleblowers protection
- Implications on employers

1:15 pm– Wrap Up

Pending HRCI Credit Approval

Please RSVP to Teresa Haight at teresa.haight@oclaro.com by Tuesday March 8th, 2011 at 3pm. Also visit us at our website www.hratt.org or our Facebook group at group name Human Resource Association of the Twin Tiers.